DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

- a. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chen. Chen discloses a vertical support 12, a sliding member 213, a pair of rails 211 a user platform 22 and an actuation mechanism 214. As to claim 2, the mechanism includes a screw assembly P2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

- b. Claims 5-14 and 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chen as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Watanabe et al. Chen discloses all of the limitations of the claimed invention except for the controller and a motor. Watanabe teaches a controller and a motor. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ a controller for the purpose of operating a device. Chen teaches in claims 13-14, a pulley 3 and a connector L.

3. Claims 3-4, 15-18 and 21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
